

In the Court of Appeals of the State of Alaska

Michael Cooksey,
Appellant,

v.

State of Alaska,
Appellee.

Court of Appeals No. A-13351

Order

Directing Parties to Inform Court if Appeal is Moot

Date of Order: June 29, 2021

Trial Court Case No. 3PA-16-01874CR

Before: Allard, Chief Judge, and Harbison and Terrell, Judges

The Appellant, Michael Cooksey, appeals the superior court's decision to terminate his probation and impose the remaining 16 months of suspended time. Mr. Cooksey's probation was revoked on December 13, 2018. It therefore appears that he would have served his entire sentence no later than April, 2020. But the opening brief in this case was not filed until June 17, 2020, and it is now July 2021. It therefore appears that Mr. Cooksey's appeal may be moot.

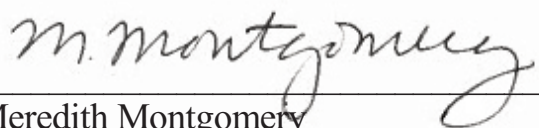

Accordingly, Mr. Cooksey is directed to file an affidavit informing the court whether he is currently in custody in connection with this case. Mr. Cooksey may also file an accompanying memorandum explaining why his appeal is not moot. The memorandum shall not exceed ten pages and need not conform with Appellate Rule 212. Mr. Cooksey's memorandum shall be filed on or before July 9, 2021.

The State may file a memorandum in response. If the State files a memorandum in response, the memorandum shall not exceed ten pages and need not conform with Appellate Rule 212. The State shall file its memorandum, or a notice that it will not file a response, on or before July 20, 2021.
